RUSSIANS CONTINUE SLOW BUT STUBBORN RETREAT

EMPIRE WILL BEND FULL ENERGY TO SUPPLY OF AMMUNITION

LITTLE CHANGE REPORTED TODAY ON THE FIGHTING LINES—EVERY CLAIM OF ONE SIDE CONTRADICTED BY THE OTHER

(Associated Press)

London, June 30.—Russia's reply to the Austro-German victories in Galicia is a law creating a board of munitions. It is empowered to spend unlimited money and given unrestricted power over all the country's industries. The creation of this board is taken to indicate that Russia realizes the dangers to her army is largely due to the lack of munitions.

O'DONOVAN ROSSA HAS GONE ACROSS

(Associated Press)

New York, June 30.—Jeremiah O'Donovan, known as Donovan Rossa, the Irish patriot, died here last night.

O'Donovan Rossa, Irish patriot and revolutionist, spent the last half of his life in the United States, 20 years of which were passed under an edict of banishment from Great Britain and any of her possessions. The grant of a full pardon by Queen Victoria for his revolutionary activities in "freeing Ireland," a quarter of a century after the Fenian uprising, he remained to the end an uncompromising foe to British rule.

Born in County Cork in 1831 as Jeremiah O'Donovan, he later took the name of Rossa, and while still a boy became interested in the Young Ireland movement.

ASQUITH HAS A POINTED QUESTION TO ANSWER

WILL HE MEET GERMAN ADVANCES TOWARD PEACE HALF WAY

(Associated Press)

London, June 30.—David Mason, liberal member of the House of Commons from Coventry, has given notice that he will ask Premier Asquith in the House of Commons today "Whether, in view of certain recent speeches made by members of the German parliament, in which they demanded speedy, honorable peace, his majesty's government will now consider the advisability of stating at this time more specifically than heretofore the terms upon which such peace with England and her allies would be possible, with the object of hastening, if possible, such happy consummation."

This may mean that the present war, which has devastated such a large portion of Europe, will be brought to an early close. Experts have predicted that the fighting would continue until one side or the other had exhausted their supply of ammunition or map. The whole world anxiously awaits the reply of Premier Asquith to this question.

UNUSUALLY FINE CANTS

While the cantaloupe crop of Marion county has not been a very brilliant financial success, we do not ever remember to have tasted finer flavored fruit all through the season from the first to the last. As far as we are able to judge, the rains that usually practically destroy the flavor of the fruit have not in the least injured it and it looks like the last shipments will be as good as the first.

BELLEVIEW

Belleview, June 29.—On the night of June 15th the whole of Belleview turned out en masse to welcome one of its sons, Mr. C. F. Bryant and his bride. The evening was spent by the elderly in conversation and the young folks enjoyed games. At a late hour ice cream and cake was served. Afterward each wished the bride and groom a happy voyage on life's matrimonial sea and departed to their several homes.

Mrs. Rowen and son who have been visiting their uncle, Mr. Romo for quite awhile, left for Cleveland, O., last week.

Miss J. A. Murray of Gainesville is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Fielding.

The Belleview baseball club are almost invincible on their own diamond, but they seem to lose their nerve when they visit other diamonds. Last Saturday Coleman came with a strong line-up. Belleview fairly ran away with them. Coleman must think we have a strong team for they want some of our players to help them defeat Waldo.

Mrs. Caroline Moorhead will give a canning demonstration at the home of Prof. Connor Thursday, July 1st. All are invited to attend and see how it is done.

Miss Maggie Whisenant returned home Monday from a visit to her uncle, David Whisenant of Candler.

ITALY'S AID FOR ALLIES

Will Furnish Ports for Allied Forces Operating Against the Dardanelles

London, June 30.—A dispatch to the Daily Chronicle says:

Engaged, as she actually is, in a life and death struggle with the dual monarchy, and possibly with its big ally also, Italy cannot at this moment afford to dislocate considerable forces from their main objective, hence the report is altogether untrue that Italy is on the point of dispatching two army corps to aid the Anglo-French troops in Gallipoli or that she is drafting the main portion of her fleet from the Adriatic.

What Italy has done is to offer Britain and France the free use of one or more ports on the Adriatic coast of Italy, like Brindisi or Taranto, so as to afford a nearer, safer, and more advantageous base than the actual one at Alexandria. Italy, furthermore, has undertaken to send to the Dardanelles under command of the Duke of the Abruzzi certain warships of a type better adapted for work inside the strait than some of the dreadnoughts employed there hitherto, and England will withdraw these latter from Turkish waters exchanging them with Italy for police work in the Adriatic.

BRITISH HAVE TAKEN GERMAN SOUTHWEST AFRICA

Shortly after there came forth from the manse Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mahin. The Rev. B. B. Staats, pastor of the Presbyterian churches of Candler and Hawthorne, performed the act which transformed Miss Teeter into Mrs. Mahin.

Mr. Mahin is one of the leading citizens of Hawthorne, is cashier of the Hawthorne State Bank, and has had much to do with the more recent developments of that prosperous and progressive town. Mrs. Mahin as Miss Teeter has been the very efficient, highly respected and well liked principal of the Hawthorne school for several years past.

Their many friends will wish them a full and overflowing cup of happiness as they now "sail the sea of life" together. May the skies be bright and the waters placid.
